

Using the Recorded FLE: Administering the Functional Listening Evaluation Using Sentences

ASSESSMENT QUESTIONS

1. Out of 100 children qualified for specialized instruction, only ____ will qualify to receive special education services due primarily to being deaf or hard of hearing
 - a. 1
 - b. 2
 - c. 3
 - d. 4
2. Hearing loss is a learning disorder, like LD, language disorders, ADHD, ASD, etc.
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. Research by Madell et.al found that typically hearing children from ages 3-17 are able to perform at ____ accuracy when listening in quiet and ____ accuracy when listening in background noise.
 - a. 80% and 70%
 - b. 90% and 85%
 - c. 95% and 90%
 - d. 95% and 85%
4. A student's ability to understand speech in noise cannot be predicted from his or her hearing thresholds.
 - a. True
 - b. False
5. Which of the following is not true?
 - a. Using sentences is most like the child's daily listening experience.
 - b. Sentences are the best material to use to find out about precision listening ability
 - c. Using sentences allows us to observe how students use their knowledge of language when they are uncertain of words heard.
 - d. Using sentences is the best way to estimate functional listening ability.

You must get 4 out of 5 items correct to pass the quiz. You will have 2 tries. You must pass the quiz before you can download your certificate(s) of participation.